Since 2006, Woodie McDuffie has been Vice President, Business Development, for KAG Ethanol Logistics, a Division of KAG Logistics. He has over 30 years of experience in the bulk transportation and logistics industry. Prior to joining the company, he served as President of an Intermodal Logistics Services Company from 1994 to 2006. Before 1994, he held various management positions within the national bulk carrier industry.

Mr. McDuffie received his Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Mississippi College.

With respect to professional affiliations, he is a member of the Renewable Fuels Association and a past President of the International Trade Club of Mississippi.

KAG Logistics is the nation's first, fully automated end-to-end logistics services provider to the fuels industry. It is a subsidiary of Kenan Advantage Group ("KAG"), North America's largest bulk transportation and logistics provider to the petroleum and specialty products industries. KAG is the only independent fuels delivery carrier with a nationwide network. It employs over 5,000 people and generates annual revenues of $800 million.
